- Applications typically open in the early Fall – some open now. Some institutions have set days each year, for example Langara and KPU applications open as of October 1st. UBC & SFU opens in early October. Deadline for application is usually in January/February and varies with institution/program. For non-competitive programs at VCC, Kwantlen or Langara, it is important to apply as early as possible.
- Some admissions are based on the academic transcript only (highly competitive). Some admissions consider academic transcript PLUS an academic profile (e.g. supplemental application, personal profile) for a holistic approach for evaluation – a "broad-based application". Quality of application is reviewed.
- For PSI's (Post Secondary Institutions):
  Use https://apply.educationplannerbc.ca/ (BC)
