Today is National Custodian Appreciation Day. We'd like to thank Ms. Samra and all our afternoon/evening custodians for all their hard work they do each day. Our custodial staff's efforts go far beyond keeping our school clean and safe—they help create a welcoming environment where students and staff can learn, work, and thrive. Every day, often behind the scenes, they demonstrate care, commitment, and pride in making our school community a better place. Thank you to our incredible custodial team!

I want to try that!" Then come on out and audition for this year's school production, "TRACKS." This drama focuses on the lives of ten strangers who end up in a subway station but don't understand how they got there until they realize that the train they are waiting for has serious implications. Auditions take place October 8th and 9th after school. A sign-up sheet is located outside the theatre room. Read the instructions carefully and we can't wait to see you at the auditions!
