Today, we come together as a school community to recognize Pink Shirt Day—a day dedicated to standing up against bullying and lifting each other up through kindness, respect, and inclusion. Pink Shirt Day began with one small act of courage when two students stood up for a classmate who was bullied for wearing pink. Their simple act of kindness sparked a movement that reminds us that even the smallest actions can create big change. By wearing pink today, we're showing that our school is a safe, caring place where everyone belongs. Let's use this day to think about how we can support one another—not just today, but every day. A smile, a kind word, an invitation to join in, or simply choosing to be inclusive can make a huge difference. Thank you for wearing pink and helping us spread the message: Be kind. Be inclusive. Lift each other up. Have a wonderful Pink Shirt Day!

Attention all Staff and Students! We will be taking a photo of all students and staff who are Wearing Pink During Break This Wednesday.
